Safety First!

When using snatch straps and cables you need to think about safety. When you've got a couple of tons pulling on a strap or cable and something lets go, you can imagine just how quickly the loose end can whip around. It could seriously injure someone! To minimize the danger, always tie a damper on to the strap or cable. The bag the equipment came in, a blanket, even a jacket will help muffle the recoil if something lets go. Be safe and make it home in one piece.

HI-COUNTRY POLY TARPS

KEEP IT COVERED!

Hi-Country Heavy Duty Poly Tarps have a super tough design to provide the best protection from the elements - wind, rain, hail or shine.

The Heavy Duty tarps have a silver coating, 14x14 weave stitching and are UV stabilised to reflect heat and avoid sun damage. Heavy Duty tarps also have reinforced 'D-Rings' on each corner to ensure ultimate strength when securing the tarp.

Both the Heavy Duty and Standard Blue tarps have eyelets running approximately every 3 feet around the perimeter. For that extra reinforcement, rope is incorporated into a double layer of fabric also running around the perimeter.
